A Message
from the State
Town and Country
Art Program
Committee

Welcome to the 1987 Town and Country Amateur Art Exhibition!

For over thirty years the Town and Country Art program has been devoted exclusively to non-professional art in the State of Illinois. The program has been the source of motivation for many amateur artists to produce creative two- and three-dimensional art forms in a variety of media.

This show is the culmination of county and regional exhibitions throughout the state during the past spring and summer. The 138 works you see here today are among the 5,205 pieces entered by 2,305 amateur artists in 39 county shows. There, 741 blue-ribbon winners were selected for seven regional shows. To be included in this state show, the work had to receive a blue ribbon at a regional show.

At the heart of the Town and Country Amateur Art program are the artists. To them, we extend congratulations on their creative achievement and on the important contribution they make to the cultural development in the state.

To the many dedicated volunteers, county Extension advisers and faculty members who have assured the program's continuing success, we express our appreciation.

As the Cooperative Extension Service withdraws its long-time support at county, regional and state levels, the Illinois Park and Recreation Association, an organization of about 400 park and recreation agencies, has agreed to assume cooperating sponsorship with other units at the University of Illinois.

We invite you to enjoy this display of work by Illinois amateur artists!

The Town and Country State
Amateur Art Exhibition

The year 1987 marks the 32nd anniversary of the Town and Country state amateur art exhibition, sponsored by the University of Illinois. It is also a time to reflect on how it came to be, what it has become and what the future portends.

It began in 1956 as a rural arts show held in conjunction with the 55th Farm and Home Week. In the early years of the show, exhibitors were limited to residents of rural Illinois—the open country and towns of less than 10,000 population. The program has since been broadened to include all interested Illinois amateur artists.

Credit for the idea of a rural arts show in Illinois goes to Hadley Read, then head of U. of I. Office of Agricultural Communications. Returning from the Minnesota Farm and Home Week in 1955, he brought a catalogue of their Rural Artists exhibit. Read suggested to E.H. Regnier, a professor of rural recreation, that Illinois initiate a similar show for the Farm and Home Week.

Regnier and others agreed it was a good idea and thought the rural people of Illinois would be interested. At that time, some home advisers conducted programs to further the appreciation of arts and crafts. Also, the Cooperative Extension Service program of Leisurecraft and Counseling Camp and the county craft schools could provide exhibitors.

The Division of University Extension was offering art courses conducted by Professor Walter M. Johnson. He accepted the idea enthusiastically as a way to unite the scattered efforts of educational, recreational and personal pursuits in arts and crafts.

The proposal received the active support and cooperation of the College of Fine and Applied Arts. Dean A.S. Weller met with members of the art staff—Glenn Bradshaw, Nicholas Britsky, George Foster, Don Frith and Johnson—and the proceedings were presented to Dean Louis B. Howard of the College of Agriculture.

Howard approved the idea and appointed a committee consisting of L.E. Anderson, D.A. Brown, Jessie Heathman, Dorothy O. Twardock and Regnier to plan a rural arts show for the 55th Farm and Home Week. Bradshaw and Foster were consultants.

The response for the exhibit was greater than anticipated. The 100 entries crowded the Agriculture Library in Mumford Hall on the U. of I. campus. The show included the works of 42 artists from 19 Illinois communities. The jury, consisting of Johnson, Bradshaw, Foster and Frith, selected 10 pieces to receive special citations. Highlighting the first exhibit were a number of gallery features consisting of demonstrations in ceramics by Frith, oil painting by Foster, watercolors by Bradshaw, and miniatures by Nella Van Wyk, a guest artist from Johannesburg, South Africa.

Although the last Farm and Home Week was held in 1962, the Art Exhibition continues under combined direction of the U. of I. Cooperative Extension Service, Colleges of Agriculture, Fine and Applied Arts and Applied Life Studies.

From the Agriculture Library the state show moved to the lower gym of the Women's Building (now the English Building), the Bevier hall basement, then to the Architecture Gallery. In 1968, the Town and Country State Amateur Art Exhibition opened in Lincoln Square, Urbana. For 17 years, the Lincoln Square Management Association cooperated in staging the show there, giving thousands the opportunity to view the work of amateur artists from throughout the state.

The year 1985 marked a new wave of change and a move to the Market Place Shopping Center in Champaign with the cooperation of the Management in staging the show and a return of a gallery feature on the final day of the exhibition. The new location increased the visibility of the exhibition substantially.

This year, 1987, marks the end of an era of Cooperative Extension Service sponsorship. The quality of the state exhibition remains peerless. As new leadership arises, there is potential for a great new era of State Town and Country Amateur Art Exhibitions in Illinois.

OFFICE OF RECREATION AND PARK RESOURCES
1206 S. FOURTH STREET, 104 HUFF HALL
CHAMPAIGN, IL 61820

September 12, 1987

Dear Friends of the Town & Country Art Program:

As many of you know the Illinois Cooperative Extension Service, the Office of Recreation and Park Resources and the College of Fine and Applied Arts has for many years sponsored the Town & Country Amateur Art Program in Illinois.

Due to budget constraints, the Cooperative Extension Service must withdraw its sponsorship of the Art Program after 32 years. The Illinois Park and Recreation Association has graciously accepted the responsibility to co-sponsor the 1988 program in cooperation with other units at the University of Illinois.

A task force has been appointed by Connie Skibbe, President-elect of the Illinois Park and Recreation Association to set up the procedures for the transition.

The Illinois Park and Recreation Association represents almost 400 park and recreation departments throughout the state. The process of involving these park and recreation agencies in the Amateur Art Program for 1988 will begin in the next several weeks.

We are asking local park and recreation departments to begin sponsorship of local Amateur Art Shows for 1988. As in the past 32 years, blue ribbon winners would still be eligible to enter the State Show which would continue to be held at Market Place Shopping Center in Champaign.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE TO CONTACT YOUR LOCAL PARK AND RECREATION AGENCY (YOUR PARK DISTRICT OR CITY RECREATION DEPARTMENT) AND PLEDGE YOUR COOPERATION IN WORKING WITH THEM FOR 1988 AND BEYOND.

Sincerely,

Jim Brademas, Ph.D.
